

GAYNOR WON
MAYORALTYBut Remainder of Tammany
Ticket Failed

BANNARD RAN SECOND

Draper Was Re-elected Governor of Massachusetts But by Greatly Reduced Plurality—Other Elections.

New York, Nov. 3.—Tammany elected another mayor of greater New York yesterday, but lost its grip on city finances. William J. Gaynor of Brooklyn swept the five boroughs to victory as mayor by at least 10,000 plurality, defeating Otto T. Bannard, Republican fusion, and William H. Hearst, Independent. He failed, however, to carry his ticket with him and the Republican fusion forces will control absolutely the board of estimate and apportionment, which will disburse approximately a billion dollars during the administration. This is more than half a defeat for Tammany for the control of the board of estimate was one of the principal issues of the campaign.

In addition, the Republican-fusionists elected Charles S. Whitman district attorney of New York county, who defeated George Gordon Battle, the Democratic nominee, by at least 10,000 plurality and John S. Shen for sheriff over Christopher D. Sullivan, Democrat, by approximately 10,000.

The reform control of the board of estimate is secured by the election of the following Republican-fusion nominees: Comptroller, William A. Prendergast, defeating Robert R. Moore, by approximately 85,000.

President of the board of aldermen, John Purroy Mitchell, defeating John F. Galvin by approximately 54,000.

President of the board of aldermen, George McAneny, defeating Joseph Haug by approximately 18,000.

President of the borough of Brooklyn, Alfred H. Steer, defeating John H. McCooey, by approximately 14,000.

In addition to the foregoing indications point to the election of the following Republican-fusion nominees: President of the borough of the Bronx, Cyrus C. Miller, defeating A. H. Murphy.

President of the borough of Richmond, George Cronin, defeating McCormick.

The contest for these two last named borough presidencies was very close, but the latest returns favored the Republican-fusion nominees while in Queens (Long Island) Lawrence Grosser, Independent, and Tammany, were elected.

With a total of 49 votes in the board of estimate, the Republican-fusion forces, even counting out the election of the borough presidents of the Bronx and Staten Island, will have 12 votes.

Hearst ran a poor race and went down with a total of less than 150,000, as against approximately 245,000 for Gaynor and 174,000 for Bannard. With but thirty-six election districts out of 1,079 missing, the total vote of the greater city for the three candidates was as follows:

Gaynor, 243,870.
Bannard, 173,360.
Hearst, 148,540.

This gives Gaynor a lead of 70,471 over Bannard and 95,332 over Hearst.

The race for the district attorneyship appeared to be close at first, but as returns came in it was apparent that Whitman was leading Battle by approximately 25,000.

Tammany was also defeated in the struggle for supreme court justices in New York county, with the election of Nathan Bijur, Edward J. Cavanagh and Alfred R. Page, all Republican-fusionist candidates, by safe majorities.

Charles S. Whitman, the new district attorney, and the supreme court victory places the reform element in control of important factors of the judicial machinery of the city and county.

GAYNOR IS SILENT
AS TO HIS POLICYBut He Thanks The Newspaper Reporters
For Keeping Their Pledges

With Him During The Campaign.

New York, Nov. 3.—Judge Gaynor handed out a typewritten statement today, in which he failed to outline his policy or even say if he would serve as mayor. His failure to say he won't serve, however, is taken to mean that he will, he said.

"I have nothing for the newspapers," says the statement, "except that I desire to express thanks to you reporters who have been calling daily. Not a confidence has been broken. I regret to see what purports to be an interview in a morning paper. I gave none."

rapidity with which the vote was cast, notwithstanding the unwieldy and complicated ballots.

DRAPER'S PLURALITY
CUT TO THE BONE

His Plurality Over Valley Yesterday Was Only 5,382—Plan No. 2 Was Chosen by a Small Plurality.

Boston, Nov. 3.—Eben Draper was re-elected governor of Massachusetts over James H. Valley, Democrat, yesterday by a plurality of 5,382. The complete returns from the governorship give Draper 190,945, and Valley 185,563. Lieut. Governor L. A. Frothingham was re-elected by 5,018 plurality over E. N. Foss, the figures being Frothingham 184,870 and Foss 179,852.

The total vote for district attorney in Suffolk county resulted in the election of Joseph C. Pelletier by a majority of nearly 1,500. The vote was as follows: J. C. Pelletier, Democrat, 40,757; A. D. Hill, Republican, 39,338; A. D. Moran, Independent Democrat, 4,261.

The Democratic gain in the state also extended to the legislature, where the party will have ten additional seats in the House, while the Senate will remain the same. The legislature of 1910 will stand as follows:

House—Republicans, 100; Democrats, 70; Socialist, 1.

Senate—Republicans, 33; Democrats, 7.

Plan No. 2 was chosen over plan No. 1 by a vote of 53,306 to 38,175, the plurality being 15,131. Plan 2 calls for the election of a mayor for four years, with privilege of recall at the end of two years by not less than a majority vote; all candidates to be nominated by petition of 5,000 voters, no party designation to be on the ballot.

The city council will consist of one member of nine members, all elected at large for three years, three to be elected each year after the first election. The candidate will also be nominated by petition of not less than 5,000 voters. The same system of nomination applies to the school committee candidates.

The new charter also provides for a finance commission to supervise the conduct of affairs at city hall, the publication of a city record and the approval by the civil service commission of the fitness of heads of departments before their appointment by the mayor.

A MORAL VICTORY.

Although Defeated Said James H. Valley Last Night.

Boston, Nov. 3.—Hon. James H. Valley said last night:

"This election has resulted in a grand moral victory for the people of this state. We almost wiped out a plurality of 60,000. I am gratified beyond expression at the result, although I expected to win."

"We have rendered a service which is bound to help the state. Too much praise cannot be given for the splendid courage exhibited by Mr. Foss. He made a magnificent run."

"The help of the labor organizations was very powerful. Mr. Madole, chairman of the state committee, and Mr. McDonald, chairman of the executive committee, have rendered valuable service. There was perfect harmony everywhere. Earnestness and enthusiasm were the watchwords, and victory was in the air."

"The Republican machine of Massachusetts knows now that the people cannot be trifled with. It has been taught a lesson that will not be soon forgotten, by the independent voters of the state."

"The fight for the reforms in our platform has but just begun. It will be waged until they are accomplished. The patriotism of the great masses of the people of the state has never been appealed to in vain."

GENERAL ELECTION
RETURNS OF YESTERDAYThere Is Not a Great Change in the Positions of the Two Leading Political Parties.

New York, Nov. 3.—Elections were held yesterday in many states and cities throughout the country, with varying results, there being no national issue involved to bring about concerted party action.

In Rhode Island, Governor Potter, Republican, was re-elected over Olney Arnold, Democrat, by a substantial majority.

In Virginia, the early returns indicate that the Democratic ticket, headed by Judge Mann for governor, had been elected by about the usual majority.

In Philadelphia, another battle ground like New York on reform issues, Samuel P. Rotan, Republican, was elected district attorney over Clarence Gibbons, representing the Law and Order society and the reform element. Rotan's majority exceeded that in a previous reform election, being estimated at upwards of 30,000.

The Pennsylvania state elections for state treasurer, attorney general, and judge of the supreme court, resulted in the usual Republican majority.

In Maryland the constitutional amendment, disfranchising the negro, is still in doubt, the Baltimore vote being strongly against the amendment, while returns from the interior indicate increasing strength for the amendment.

Mayor Tom Johnson, the pietreque mayor of Cleveland, has been defeated by a decisive majority by Herman Becker, Republican.

In Indianapolis, where the temperance issue has figured, Lewis Shank, Republican, is elected over Charles A. Gauss, Democrat.

In Cincinnati, the indications are that Louis Schwebel, Republican, has been elected mayor.

The total vote of Indianapolis for mayor gives Samuel Lewis Shank, Republican, 27,170, and Charles A. Gauss, Democrat, 25,720.

City Clerk Buckingham, Democrat, is elected mayor of Bridgeport, Conn., by 3,254 plurality. The entire Democratic ticket is elected.

"I rejoice in common with all good citizens in the magnificent triumph of the Democratic candidate for mayor, Judge Gaynor. The importance of his election to the people of New York cannot now be fully measured. It must be particularly gratifying to the majority, that his personal character and public record have successfully withstood the most vindictive and untruthful assault ever made upon a political candidate in all my experience."

"I of course regret that any of the candidates on the ticket should be defeated. The responsibility for their defeat is in no wise to be attributed to any infirmity or unworthiness on their part. The people well understood without suggestion from me precisely what influences combined to bring about the result."

The secretary was instructed to issue a printed report of the proceedings as soon as practicable and was instructed to include in his printed report a revised list of active members. Superior Judges Stanton and Butler were made honorary members of the association.

The question of holding the annual meetings in the summer time was discussed. The retiring president was instructed to appoint a committee of three to work with the committee appointed by the governor to amend the constitution.

The chair appointed Charles D. Watson of St. Albans and John W. Redmond of Newport a committee to meet J. The anniversary exercises were held last evening in the county court room and were attended by most of the supreme and superior judges and a large representation of the bar.

The annual address by James K. Batchelder of Arlington, the retiring president, on "The Law's Delay," was a scholarly production and was received with many manifestations of approval.

SHOT A WOMAN AND THEN HIMSELF

Mrs. Annie Berry Victim of Edward J.
Dickson at Fitchburg, Mass., Yesterday Afternoon.

Fitchburg, Mass., Nov. 3.—As a result of a shooting affair at the boarding house of Mrs. Annie Berry, in this city yesterday, Mrs. Berry was removed to the hospital with a painful, but not serious bullet wound in the head, while Edward J. Dickson, who the police say attempted murder and suicide, was also removed to the same institution with a more serious and perhaps fatal wound in the head.

Dickson had been a boarder at Mrs. Berry's for several months, and when the woman announced, Monday, that she was to give up her boarding house he became very angry. Some of the neighbors claimed today that Dickson threatened to take his life yesterday.

Mrs. Berry's husband, Frank Berry, is a traveling salesman in his feet he was an iron nut, and regarding his feet he began to mash right and left with this weapon. The men got him down again and while one was choking him another removed one of his congress shoes and began to batter his face with the heel of it. Only once did the officer lose consciousness and that was when the choking became too violent.

Throughout the terrific beating he managed to keep up his end of the carnage with the pump handle. While two of the assailants kept up the tattoo on his face the third man walked around his body kicking him first in the head and then in the ribs.

But for the timely arrival of assistance, in the form of two other officers the man would undoubtedly have been murdered. All of the three men were captured and they will be arraigned next Monday evening. The state will prosecute.

Rutland, Nov. 3.—Charles Ostrander, a special officer of West Rutland, was badly beaten by three men while trying to quell a disturbance last Sunday night. In his pocket was a section of a pump handle at one end of which was an iron nut, and regarding his feet he began to mash right and left with this weapon. The men got him down again and while one was choking him another removed one of his congress shoes and began to batter his face with the heel of it. Only once did the officer lose consciousness and that was when the choking became too violent.

BOOMING RYEGATE STONE.

Osgood Granite Company Has Several Postoffice Contracts.

Northfield, Nov. 3.—The Osgood Granite Co. has recently closed a contract to cut and furnish its Ryegate granite for the postoffice building in Elizabethtown, N. J., a $150,000 structure. Manager Osgood expects to cut some of the stone on which the most work is required and to do the carving in Northfield, but the freight rates over the Wells River road makes it impracticable to shift the main cutting of this and other jobs here.

The Ryegate granite as a building stone is rapidly growing in popular favor. At the present time the Osgood company is furnishing the granite used in five other postoffice buildings besides the Elizabethtown job, viz: Bridgeport, N. J., Marietta, Ohio, Kansas, Ill., Michigan City, Ind., and Hudson, N. Y. Besides these contracts the company is supplying a large amount of small orders from its South Ryegate quarries. Manager Osgood has been getting this stone to the attention of architects, contractors and builders during the past few months with highly satisfactory results.

WOMEN SCREAMED

As Car Raked Side of Passenger Train in Central Vermont Yard.

The Central Vermont passenger train which left here at 5:45 p. m. met with an accident last evening which fortunately injured no one but disfigured the train from the engine to the end of the last car. A train of flat cars had been shifted onto a siding off the main line just below Granite street and the last car of this train was a large steel coal car and this car was left so that the rear end of it was still on the main line.

The passenger train went out soon after and a brakeman in the yard signaled engineer Thomas Farrell that the line was clear. The passenger train was going at good speed and in the darkness the engineer did not see the car projecting onto the track until it was too late to stop his train, and in fact he had a narrow escape from being struck in the head by the top of the coal car, as he was leaning out of the window of the cab when the engine hit the car.

Before the engineer could bring the train to a stop, the end of the coal car had raked the side of the two coaches and the baggage car, tearing off steps and boards from the cars just beneath the windows. The smoker was next to the engine and was the worst damaged, having several windows broken out and the steps torn off. The crash of breaking boards and the tipping of the car threw the passengers from their seats and caused no little excitement among them for a few minutes.

The women passengers screamed at the top of their voices when the car struck, but no one was injured by being thrown against the seats. The cars were being run on the train this morning, except the smoker, but will be set off for repairs as soon as other coaches are provided. These two coaches had only very recently been in the shops and were thoroughly renovated and painted, and the train was in the best shape that it had been for some time.

The coal car with several other cars had just been shifted from the Wells River road onto the Wells River transfer tracks to be transferred to the C. V. and the train had been pushed onto the siding too far, so that the end of the coal car, which was loaded, projected onto the main line of the Central.

WELL LIKED WOMAN.

Mrs. J. H. Talsey of Groton Died Yesterday Morning.

Groton, Nov. 3.—This community was shocked and grieved to learn yesterday forenoon of the death of Mrs. J. H. Talsey, under particularly sad circumstances. A little daughter was born during the night, but did not live, and at 10 o'clock the mother also passed away. Dr. Lee of Wells River, Miller of Woodsville, N. H., and Tilton of this place were in attendance, but their united efforts were of no avail.

Mattie E. Radcliffe, daughter of William and Martha Radcliffe, was born in western West Virginia, Oct. 9, 1872. She lived in Portsmouth, Ohio, for some time, and then returned to St. Albans. While employed as an attendant at Waterbury asylum, she became acquainted with J. Harry Talsey, also an attendant, and they were married at Montpelier, Aug. 3, 1897. They have lived in this town for several years. Mrs. Talsey conducted a successful hair business for about four years ago they lost their only child, little Orlo, aged seven years.

Mrs. Talsey was a devoted wife and mother, kind hearted and cheerful in disposition. She was a loyal member of the orders of Pythian Sisters and of the order of Rebekahs at Wells River. She was ever ready with a helping hand not only in church and lodge work, but also among the sick and afflicted, and she was sadly missed. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon.
